WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION: This award-winning program developed by the National Coalition Building Institute (NCBI) uses an experiential format that encourages respect and teamwork among CSEA brothers and sisters by expanding their understanding and appreciation of diversity. In this interactive workshop, leaders and activists will explore how to build community and unity within the union. In addition, specific tools are taught in the workshop to empower activists and leaders with the skills to create a more involved and inclusive union and learn to become constructive allies on behalf of all groups that exist within the union.
